

SPECIAL EVENT...MEET THE AUTHOR

"I wrote the book during all the years I took care of my mother. It is a guidebook to help anyone who is on a journey of caring for someone with Alzheimer's — from diagnosis to the end of the journey."

FREE SIGNED BOOK *

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

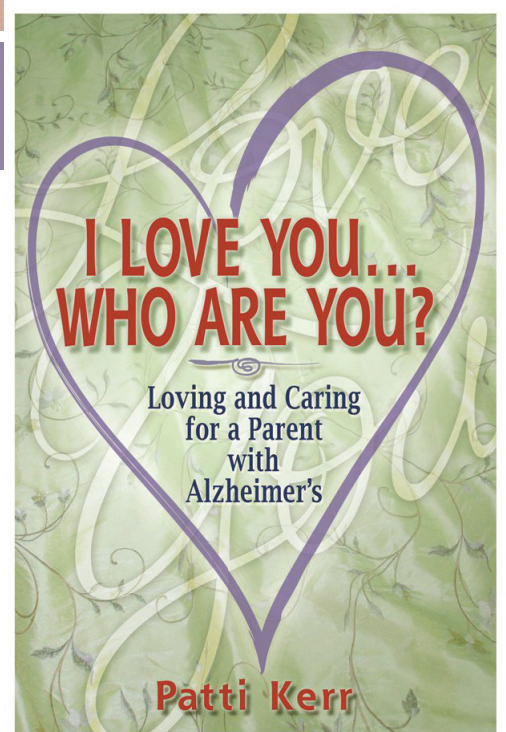

5:30 Light Dinner, Presentation starts at 6pm

Followed by Q & A and Book Signing

Come and meet Patti Kerr, CAEd, local Certified Alzheimer's Educator, speaker, author and advocate. Join Patti as she talks about her family's journey with the disease along with support, insight, and tips for anyone caring for someone with Alzheimer's.

I LOVE YOU...WHO ARE YOU? is a roadmap to guide anyone who is loving and caring for someone with Alzheimer's — from diagnosis to the end of the journey. It contains the experiences, insights, advice, stories and tips from over 100 family and professional care providers, including:

- The first steps every care provider should take.
- Being a proactive (rather than a reactive) care provider.
- How to communicate and deal with difficult behaviors.
- Caring for yourself while caring for your loved one.
- Talking with children and grandchildren — and the rest of your family.

*Free book for the first 10 RSVPs.
Additional books are available for sale.
